

PulteGroup Recertified as Great Place to Work® for 2024

PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM) has earned its Great Place to Work® recertification for 2024, with 93% of surveyed employees rating it as an exceptional workplace. This score surpasses the average U.S. company by 36 percentage points. The company's fifth certification demonstrates its consistent focus on workplace quality and positive employee experience.

"We're honored to receive the Great Place to Work® Certification™ once again," said Ryan Marshall, President and CEO of PulteGroup. "This employee-driven recognition and the resounding positive feedback from our team show we're succeeding in offering meaningful work, a culture of trust, opportunities for growth, and a company that instills genuine pride."

Great Place to Work® bases its certification on employee feedback about their workplace experience."

At PulteGroup, we attribute our success to the growth and fulfillment of our people," said Kevin Henry, Chief People Officer. "This recertification underscores our ongoing commitment to a workplace where individuals grow personally and professionally, enjoy their work, and achieve results. Our investments in development, work-life balance, and inclusive practices reflect our belief in the power of an engaged workforce."

PulteGroup's recent accolades further demonstrate its commitment to employees, including:
